

PANEL PROGRAMME

Changing migration policies: national perspectives and supra-national strategies
Hotel Yesterday Bucharest, 10 - 11 November 2016

THURSDAY, 10 NOVEMBER

PARRALEL PANELS

14:00 Re-active and pro-active migration policies in the European countries

Chair: Dr. Aija Lulle, University of Sussex and University of Eastern Finland
Location: Basarab Room, 6th floor

Official EU government responses to 'Radicalisation': young Muslims and the security-migration-terror nexus

Anila Noor, Independent refugee researcher

De-Europeanisation as re-active migration policy? Mobility and integration in times of 'Brexit': a sociological perspective

Chris Moreh, University of Southampton (UK), ESRC Centre for Population Change

Obvious Success or hidden failure? The change from re-active to pro-active policies by countries and organizations involved: Greece as a case study

Kleanthis Kyriakidis, University of the Aegean; MPA Harvard Kennedy School

14:00 The refugee crisis and public perception regarding refugees

Chair: Dr. Marek Čaněk - Multicultural Center Prague
Location: Politehnică Room, 6th floor

The EU & OIC: a market-based solution to the European Union's refugee crisis?

Akiva Weiss, Erasmus University Rotterdam, Law and Economics Department

The Diasporization of Counterpublics: Iranian Asylum Seekers in Turkey

Navid Fozi, TUBITAK Research Fellow based in Middle East Technical University, Ankara, Turkey

Public Perception in Romania on the Migration in the Context of the Refugee Crisis in Europe since 2015

Cristina Gelan, Faculty of Letters, "Ovidius" University, Constanta

Law and immigrant social construction in European Union regarding the terrorist threat

Emellin de Oliveira, Researcher at CEDIS - Centro de I&D sobre Direito e Sociedade

16:00 Selective migration and regional economic development

Chair: Prof. Dr. Monica Roman, Department of Statistics and Econometrics - Bucharest University of Economic Studies
Location: Basarab Room, 6th floor

Comparative Analysis of Migrants: Turkey, Egypt and Morocco. Factors affecting the choice of a destination country

Kahn Yehudith, Tel Hai College, Department of Economics and management, Israel

The Effects of Push and Pull Factors in Home/Host countries on Immigration and Return Migration: The Case of Iranian Immigrants in Europe

Bahram Salavati, Department of Social & Political Sciences, Milan State University

Romania's Medical Exodus. Evidence from LinkedIn Data

Alina Botezat, Senior Researcher, Romanian Academy - "Gh. Zane" Institute for Economic and Social Research

16:00 New challenges of migration to old Human Rights International instruments

Chairs: Associate Prof. Marius Nicolae Bălan - University "Alexandru Ioan Cuza" Iași; Mr. Ștefan Leonescu, Legal counsellor - Jesuit Refugee Service Romania
Location: Politehnică Room, 6th floor

Fleeing persecution due to sexual orientation: challenges and prospects for LGBT* asylum claims in Europe

Sarah Craig, Queen's University Belfast, Northern Ireland

The Impact of Recent Global Migration on Human Rights International Instruments at European Level

Ana M. C. Budeanu, Legal consultant, Independent researcher

Are refugees inside or outside of the political community?

Attila Szabó, Menedék Hungarian Association for Migrants

Sailing to Byzantium: the EU's response to the migrant crisis

Anthony Moore, Barrister-at-Law, Dublin, Ireland

FRIDAY, 11 NOVEMBER

PARRALEL PANELS

11:15 Labour and skill shortages and the economics of migration

Chair: Dr. Matloob Piracha, Associate Professor - School of Economics, University of Kent

Location: Politehnică Room, 6th floor

Labour and skill shortages and the economics of migration: What can we learn from the Windrush Generation?

Kieron Blake, West London Local Authority

Steps in Identifying the Romanian Needs for Labour Force Available to Third-Country Nationals

Mihaela Roxana Prisacariu, Center for Intercultural Research and Communication, Iasi, Romania

Immigration policies and immigrant entrepreneurship: the case of transitional arrangements

Magda Ulcelușe, Marie Curie Fellow, Central European University, Budapest

11:15 Civil society contributions to challenging migration policy and practice

Chair: Mr. Wilson Nkurunziza - Visible Outcomes, UK

Location: Basarab Room, 6th floor

MARIO – Joint action to protect children on the move in Europe

Laura Adriana Sava – Ghica, Programme Manager – Child Protection, Terre des hommes Foundation, Romanian Delegation

Beyond the policy domain: Civil society's role in mitigating securitisation of migrant host states

Lorraine Macmillan, Dept of History, Politics and Social Sciences - University of Greenwich

Civil Society Organization as actors in migrant women's maternal health in Poland: A Case of Polish Migration Forum and "I am a Mom in Poland"

Omoye Mary Akhagba, Institute of Philosophy and Sociology, Polish Academy of Sciences, Warsaw, Poland

14:30 Impact of migration on social work and social welfare

Chair: Dr. Ana Maria Preoteasa - The Reaserch Institute for Quality of Life, Bucharest
Location: Basarab Room, 6th floor

Gendered perceptions of migration among Ghanaian children in transnational care

Victor Cebotari, Maastricht Graduate School of Governance, Maastricht University

Lifestyle transformation of left behind children in context of romanian work-migration

Adriana Borosanu, Institute of Anthropology Francisc I Rainer, Romanian Academy

Migration impact on the well-being of children left behind in Kyrgyzstan

Kamalbek Karymshakov, Finance and Banking Department, Kyrgyzstan-Turkey Manas University

A study on undocumented immigrants in the welfare state

Marja Katisko, Helsinki Metropolitan Urban Research Program, DIAK – University of Applied Sciences, Finland
